ComicArtFans.com Releases v2.1 of deCAF Mobile App & Announces Launch of Art Scout Web Crawler

Orlando, FL - November 14, 2025 - ComicArtFans.com (CAF), the global hub for everything related to original art from comic books and other narrative or visual storytelling art, announces the version 2.1 release of its deCAF mobile app, which is available globally for both iOS and Android devices under "Comic Art Fans" through Apple's App Store and Google Play.

Today, we're also introducing ART SCOUT, the most powerful web crawler ever offered. Whether you're brand new to art collecting or a professional art dealer, ART SCOUT is designed to be your personal 24/7 global monitoring assistant that seeks and identifies newly posted art for sale that matches your CAF Want List Keywords. ART SCOUT is launching with the inclusion of 147 global web sites and expanding to nearly 200 sites in January 2026, covering nearly 350,000 pieces of art for sale.

ART SCOUT is a dynamic product that will be proactively maintained and expanded, benefiting greatly from the global, active CAF community of artists, collectors, art reps, art dealers, and auction houses who will be invited to submit requests for new sites and art sellers to be included. With ART SCOUT, there's no filler or garbage, just tailored results.

The deCAF app v2.1 release is a significant update that incorporates ART SCOUT and provides critical new features and improvements:

- CAF Keyword Limit Expanded - CAF Premium Subscribers (currently $75/year) will now have the advantage of their keyword limit expanding from 20 to 50, which will be further expanded in early 2026, while free CAF accounts will maintain a 10 keyword limit
- CAF Want List Keywords UI/UX - Now you may easily manage your want list keywords in the deCAF app, which will ensure you get notified when art for sale matches what you're looking for
- ART SCOUT - The deCAF app displays ART SCOUT's sellers categorized by two major categories, United States and International, which is then further broken down by Dealer, Artist, Art Gallery, Marketplace, and Auction House. Importantly, you may now easily decide whether to include or exclude any seller from your results.
- Want List Feed - All of your keyword hits for newly posted art for sale will now be listed chronologically in a Want List Feed, which will display the last 90 days of results, with Want List Feed entries being removed when art is sold/removed from their respective sites
- Real-Time Push Notifications - You will get push notifications for your want list hits with exclusive real-time alerts from the ~30 high-profile web sites in our dealer network and our CAF classifieds, which together represents more than 130,000 pieces of art and growing
- Bug fixes - Fixes and speed updates have been made throughout, especially for Android users

"Our deCAF v2.1 update is just the beginning of us incorporating powerful tools and features that will be invaluable to collectors, artists, art reps, and dealers," said Bill Cox, Chief Content Officer of CAF. "Our developmental roadmap includes complete functionality with our soon to be launched marketplace, as well as our calendar of produced events, such as the Original Art Expo (OAX), Comic Art LIVE (CAL) virtual art conventions, and Indie Comics Creator Con (IC3). For now, especially for CAF Premium Members, make sure to download the deCAF app and get your want list keywords updated in time for our November 15-16 CAL event."
